Author, publisher, world traveler, are just a few of the many attributes that help to define last weeks Rotary speaker, Rosanne Knorr. She is without a doubt a very witty individual who kept the audience intrigued as she told of her experiences while living in France.

As she talked about her book, "Gone with the Wine," all we could say was "Frankly my dear. . . We want to bear more."

She has published eleven books some of which, chronicle her life and experiences that occurred during her five years of living in France.

Imagine, it started out as a five-month sabbatical that got extended for almost five years, living in a 150-year-old home where she learned French and traveled throughout Europe.

Some interesting facts that we learned: for instance, did you know that in France dogs are allowed in restaurants; or that they give the fresh baguettes to the locals and the out of Towner's get the ones that are not as fresh; and contrary to the stereotype the French are not arrogant they are in fact quite friendly. But I do believe that it would be hard for anyone not be friendly with Rosanne.

To all of the empty nesters, soon to be retired and the retired and bored you must get your copy of "The Grown-Up's Guide to Running Away From Home." If Living overseas is in your plans be sure you also read the "The Grown-Up's Guide to Retiring Abroad"

Members Corner: Tony I.

Our speaker last week was Rosanne Knorr. We should have her back again to hear more of her travel experiences. She kindly donated one of her books and it was auctioned off with the funds to go to club. The bidding was heavy but Marie won out with a bid of $1000. Marie said I thought it was $30.

The 50/50 was won by Fred, When I drove him home he said don't tell Arnold, who had to leave early. It was actually Arnold's ticket. I said don't worry Fred the $15 is yours.

While Lou Ann Palmer was present a motion was made to rename the Ringling Bridge.

The Lou Ann Palmer Bridge. The motion was turned down by a vote of 28 to 1. Lou Ann cast the only Yes vote.

Lunch today sliced Roast beef, mashed potatoes veggies and carrot cake. Lunch next week: Cobb salad with roast chicken, and key lime pie.

Remember the University Club is closed from August 21 through Labor day. We will be meeting at the Bird Key Yacht Club.

Becky Taylor has moved back to Michigan and is no longer connected to the youth opera

Jennifer Panitch is now in Finland and attending a language and cultural camp until August 8th and then will connect with her host family. The young exchange student from Tiawan arrived on Monday and may be introduced at today's meeting. Her name is Vivian (Tiawan Vivian?)

Okay Hans here it is Septima iam, phileros, tibiconditur uxor in agro. Plus nulli, phieros,quam tibi reddit ager You've just buried your seventh rich wife in that field. Nobody gets more out of a farm than you do.

Tony I.

Next Week in Rotary:

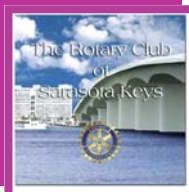

Lisa Hagerman

Executive Director of Family Promise of Sarasota, Inc.
