When is a Board Meeting not a Bored Meeting?

Sarasota Keys Rotary

Making the difference in our community and world

- Salvation Army Bell Ringing
- Vision Screening
- Youth Awards Banquet

The answer to that question is very simple. A Board meeting is not a bored meeting when it's a Sarasota Keys Board Meeting. During this current economic downturn, our board is hard at work devising a means to ensure the survival of our club. They are actively looking for creative solutions to some of the tough challenges that are facing our club. Club secretary Lee Waters has put together a summary of the actions and motions approved this month by our board.

One motion duly made, seconded and approved, was to remove Jack Schaffner and Dietmar Wittmann from the membership rolls.

Second, all club members please note! It was agreed and directed by the Board that club members who are overdue in their bills by more than 90 days will be denied credit and must pay for their meals in cash until their past bills are brought current.

Third, the acceptance of Bob Cook's resignation was duly moved, seconded and approved.

Fourth, it was decided that we should continue to email our former members copies of the Key Notes when published.

Fifth, all club members please note! Any resigning member is to submit his/her resignation to Herb Jones who is presently our Membership Committee Chair. He will take such actions as deemed necessary and then inform the Board of his results and make his appropriate recommendations. Once the resignation has been formally accepted as final and so approved by the Board, the Secretary will remove the former member from the club's rolls. The Treasurer will also perform his applicable close-out actions.

It was duly moved, seconded and unanimously approved to offer Corey Firnstahl continued Honorary Member status for this fiscal year.

That is just a recap of some of the highlights and happenings at this months board meeting. We will keep you updated boards actions each month.

Service Above Self

Members Corner: Tony I.

Well we are into September and our snow birds will soon be coming back. Bev Michelson will arrive on October 5 2009, and should be at our October 8 meeting. I have not told him where we are now meeting.

Jim Freeman won the 50/50 last week but not the Jackpot. He was sitting at my table and next to Marie. She shook her head and said " Who cares, not enough money in the pot." Jim gave the $15 winning back to the club, Thanks Jim

We had a good representation of Rotarians at the Interact club

Tuesday. Herb Jones, George Massoud, Lilian, Bert Bershon and Ken Hoffman were the along with Chris Bowman their new Teacher advocate. Louis Fisher the club President introduced everyone. There were 27 students there. They have not even tapped the Freshman class yet. The attendance should go up higher. They are already making plans for this years activities which will end in April or May 2010. All Rotary members should attend at least one of their meetings. You will be impressed.

Lunch today
Roasted Red Pepper soup

Fibanacci salad Cbefs choice for dessert For those who did not sample Fibonacci salad the last time they had it : It is Italian and is named after that famous Italian Mathematician Fabonacci from the 13th century. I'm sure you remember him. As I recall it has tomatoes lettuce and Mozzarella cheese. The roasted Pepper soup sounds good.

Wisdom from the Ancients : To know how to grow old is the master work of wisdom, and one of the most difficult chapters in the great art of living
