It is not everyday that you have the opportunity to hear about a company that allows its employees to have total control and the freedom to do whatever they want. But that's the way they do it at Sun Hydraulics. Guess what, it works!!!

There are no titles, no middle management, no supervisors, no cooperate ladder to climb. If you come up with an idea you submit it to the group, and if it's a go, together they find a way to get it done. In an environment that promotes free expression and the development of new ideas creativity blossoms and the job gets done without all of the extra baggage that comes along with cooperate life. In an environment that nurtures creativity the company can't help but grow.

Sun Hydraulics, headquartered here in Sarasota, has facilities throughout the United States, England, Germany, and Korea.

They have become a global leader in the design and manufacture of high performance screw-in cartridge valves and manifolds. Their equipment is found in tractors, drillers, and fire engines. Their hydraulic systems are used in airplanes and military equipment. Their electronic equipment can be found on the Ski slopes, and when in Germany you will see their stuff in the wind power turbines that are all over the country.

Sun Hydraulics is everywhere.

The speaker, Tricia Fulton has been with Sun Hydraulics since 1997. She is a graduate of Hillsdale College and the General Management Program at the Harvard Business School. What they are doing at Sun Hydraulics works. Check out their underwater saw.

Members Corner: Tony I.

At Tuesdays meeting members of the Interact Club volunteered to help some seniors move their belongings from one unit to another in Casa Santa Maria. A senior housing unit. The building is across the street from the Sarasota Military Academy

Thanks to all those Rotarians, who turned out last Saturday for the memorial service for Gale MacCabe. Many of Gale and Tom's friends were there. That shows just how popular Gale was. I'm sure Tom appreciates the turn out.

I heard from Jewell Emswiller, her husband, Carl had surgery and is doing well. He started driving again which is always good. They are still up in Virginia but I'm sure they will be coming south when the weather turns cooler.

Thirteen members of Interact were at the Walk benefiting the Foundation for Suicide Prevention on Sunday October 23, 2008. They passed out refreshments to the walkers. The final count is in on Breast Cancer Awareness month. They raised $300.

On Wednesday, November 25 they will be serving turkey dinner to over 1000 families during the Mayors Thanksgiving dinner. The Westcoast School Chorus will also be performing on that program.

Guess who won the 50/50 last week? Yeah, it was me. This was only the second time in 12 years. I did not pick the Queen of Hearts, probably because I was not sitting with Marie.

Don't forget the Food Basket program on November 12 at 5: 00 PM. We meet at the Save-A-Lot market on Bee Ridge Rd and McIntosh. After the baskets are filled, dinner will be at Cafe Bacci, one block South of Bee Ridge Road and Rt 41. The food will be taken to the Salvation Army after our Rotary luncheon on the 13th.

Sandy Kehoe attended the Health Career club meeting on Monday night. There were 35 young people present. Dr Hill demonstrated Ultra sound on two patients (this was live) Both women are going to have boys. A film was shown on an actual child birth. Sandy reports that the students were very quiet. This type of program is put on every month. Many of the students are considering health careers and some are already volunteering at the hospital. This program was started by our club.

Lunch today: parmesan crusted chicken with herb mashed potatoes, vegetable du jour (don't you just hate that word du jour). Dessert: chocolate cup with raspberry mousse and garnish. (the garnish is probably an old flower or powdered sugar). Note Meat loaf is coming soon!!!!

L A T I N P H R A S E
Laudant illa sed ista legunt They praise good books, they read the bad ones.
